

Modern Oasis

This apartment is designed for families with young children in mind- takes city living to new levels by giving its owners an opportunity to embrace a tropical lifestyle, right in the comfort of their home.

The furniture used in the home is kept elegantly simple, while the consistent application of wood veneer in the living room and master bedroom ensure that a strong yet calming atmosphere prevailed.

One particularly interesting aspect of the apartment lies in the way in which the furniture and decorations complement each other effortlessly, thanks to the design team attention to detail in picking out the right pieces for the apartment.

More than just a functional space, this apartment allows an unfettered lifestyle.
