

Dramatic art dominates the living and dining rooms with large, eye-catching and whimsical sculptures adding personality to the spaces. A large plush rug in dark grey helps to demarcate the TV area and give the space some much-needed contrast.

The TV console is a unique design feature that doubles as sleek storage. "Our aim was to make the console simple and stylish, so we used crystal-like frosted glass, instead of wood, to build the space," shares Fantasia. To further accentuate the brightness of the space, the glass was spray-painted white.

This sense of light is reinforced at the staircase where a large tinted mirror stretches from the first to the second floor. "One of our key challenges was installing the tinted mirror on the double-height wall in the stairwell. It took two weeks for our
